COMPTROLLER LEMBO DELIVERED NEARLY 100 SCHOOL BAGS & SUPPLIES DONATED BY COMPTROLLER EMPLOYEES FOR FOSTER FAMILIES

State Comptroller Kevin Lembo, joined by city officials and the Department of Children and Families (DCF) at the DCF Regional Office in Waterbury, delivered nearly 100 book bags and school supplies donated by employees from the Office of the State Comptroller (OSC) to assist foster and other client families. DCF Regional Administrator 5 Vannessa Dorantes along with Program Manager Maritza Acosta and the 3 regional CAFAP liaisons: Jennifer Bellamy, Margret Overton-Carter & Dora Poma gladly accepted the school supplies for distribution. Dozens of OSC employees collect school supplies every year and distribute them to organizations or families that may benefit from them.
